❖ 網址：<http://pio.chadwyck.com>

On the left side, there is a vertical menu with five items, each preceded by a red square bullet point:

- ARTICLE SEARCH
- FIND JOURNALS
- INFORMATION RESOURCES
- MY ARCHIVE
- WHAT'S NEW?

In the center, there is a 3x3 grid of small square images. The top row shows a classical bust, a building facade, and a portrait of a man. The middle row shows a portrait of a man, a coin, and a group of people. The bottom row shows a classical sculpture, musical notation, and a portrait of a man.

On the right side, there is a text block that reads: "Periodicals Index Online is the new name for Periodicals Contents Index - a database of millions of article citations published in the arts, humanities and social sciences, across more than 300 years." Below this, another text block states: "It enables researchers to quickly locate articles relevant to their particular field of study, and reduces what could involve years of study to a matter of minutes." Further down, a section titled "You have access to:" lists "Periodicals Index Online".

At the bottom left, there is a section for "Interface language:" with three options, each preceded by a red square bullet point:

- English
- Français
- Español

At the bottom of the page, there is a black banner with white text. On the left, it says "End Session | Contact Us | Privacy Policy | Accessibility | Site Map |". On the right, it says "PERIODICALS ARCHIVE ONLINE".

VOL. I. FEBRUARY, 1892. No. 4.

THE LOUISIANA LOTTERY: ITS HISTORY.

THE Louisiana Lottery Company was chartered in 1868 at the first session of the Reconstruction Legislature that assembled in Louisiana. The character of that body, composed of negroes, carpet-baggers and a few so-called Democrats, who soon became as corrupt as their associates, has passed into history. The act was passed by wholesale bribery and corruption, notorious at the time, and subsequently established by the sworn charges, made against one another by the officers and incorporators of the company, in litigations among themselves over the spoils. The company was also
